Dear Sir/Madam,

Sub: Consumer Outreach Programme -Nomination of students & faculty

Telecom Regulatory Authority of India, a statutory body established in 1997 with a mission to ensure that the interests of consumers are protected and also to nurture the conditions for growth of telecommunications, broadcasting and cable services. It is important that consumers especially the students and teachers/lecturers in Colleges and Institutions are made aware of the regulatory measures so that they can effectively safeguard their rights and privileges. TRAI has been conducting regular Consumer Interaction workshops to create awareness.

TRAI Regional Office, Bangalore is conducting Consumer Outreach Programme at Aurangabad on 16th February, 2016 (Tuesday) for the benefit of Telecom Consumers in and around Aurangabad.

During the program, participants will be informed about the complaint handling mechanism, Value added services, Barring of unwanted SMS/Calls and other problems faced by the consumers.

Hence, I request you to kindly nominate 20-25 students and 10 faculty of your Institution to attend this Telecom Consumer Outreach Programme. The name and contact details of the nominated students and faculty shall be sent to the below mentioned Coordinator.

Thanking you,

[No Registration fee]

Yours faithfully

Mr./Mrs. Mangesh Sapkal

On behalf of the Civic Response Team, we thank you for your recent valuable contribution in Swachhta Abhiyan at Waluj Pandharpur on the occasion of Ashadhi Ekadashi 4th July, 2017. This event could not have been a success without your efforts, enthusiasm and dedication.

Over 3 lakhs Varkaris marched along the Pandharpur yatra. So many food stalls were situated in the route from Nagar Naka to Pandharpur Temple. Almost 1500 Kg waste generated. Thank you for joining in the Bajaj Mazi City Swachh City Campaign and assisting with managing the waste generated during this festival. You have worked shoulder to shoulder and requested people to not litter, picked up the waste and created a lot of awareness. We all have worked together and spread a very strong message of cleanliness that goes beyond this one event.

Thank you and we look forward to your continued participation in the campaign.

Sincerely,

Letter of Appreciation

We on behalf of V volunteers would like to show our gratitude and appreciate the efforts of the Students

- Saloni Shekar Patil
- Madhusudhan Kalyankar
- Azhar Pathan
- Ganesh

for their contribution to the cause of humanity.

These students on various occasions have helped, provided first aid and hospitalized roadside accident victims and informed their relatives. Their timely help has saved many lives and retained the smiles of the victim families.

Sir let me make a special mention of the two students Saloni and Madhusudhan who have saved eight and five lives respectively.

Their contribution of these students is an inspiration to the society and the youth all around the world.

Regards,

Subject: Establishment of Law School based Legal Aid
Clinics as per directions of 14th Finance Commission.

Sir,

You are aware that the report of 14th Finance Commission had made provision for establishing six Law Schools based Legal Aid Clinics in six Government Law Schools in Maharashtra. The function of the said law schools is to promote legal aid and awareness especially amongst the under trial prisoners. The 14th Finance Commission would provide the required funds for infrastructure, computerization, preparing the legal awareness materials and also for organizing legal literacy camps, workshops, training and seminars etc.

I am glad to inform your goodself that out of six law schools one of the college is from your District. The MSLSA has selected the college viz. Manikchand Pahade Law College, Samartha Nagar, Aurangabad for the said purpose. The DLSA to monitor the said legal aid clinic.
