

Legal Aid Camp at Galle Borgaon

Our college organized the 1st Legal Aid camp at Galle Borgaon, Tq. Khultabad on 17.12.2012. The camp was organized in the premises of Zilla Parishad High School, Galle Borgaon. This camp was organized with the help of Shri. JagannathBapu Khosare from Galle Borgaon.

The program was started by lighting the lamp and garlanding the portrait of Savitribai Phule at the auspicious hands of the guests.

The Legal Aid camp was inaugurated by Hon'ble Shri. S. N. Bhosale Saheb, Judge, Khultabad Court. Prof. Dinesh Kolte, Coordinator, Legal Aid activities of M.P. Law College delivered introductory speech and explained the aims and objects of organizing legal aid camp. Shri. S.N. Bhosale in his inaugural speech said that Pre-litigation disputes should be settled amicably and explained the importance of organizing Lok-Nyayalaya.

Dr. Nirupama Dange, Joint Commissioner, Sales-Tax, Aurangabad as a chief guest of the function stated in her speech that everybody must have knowledge of Law and also appealed the people to know the laws which are enacted by our legislature. Mrs. Shobhatai Khosare, President of Aurangabad District Women Congress Committee highlighted the problems of women in society.

Adv. Shri. Bhimrao Pawar, Assistant District Government Pleader also spoke on this occasion and appealed in his speech that people should come forward and give evidence in the Court as witness and strengthen the judicial mechanism.

Adv. Ashok Thakare, Ex-President, Aurangabad District Bar Association explained the people about organizing legal aid camp in rural areas.

Shri. Jagannath Khosare presided over the function and in his presidential speech he narrated the development of his village and working of Mahatma Gandhi Litigation Free village scheme in his village.

The said program was anchored by Mr. Pradip Dahiwal and Miss. Pratiksha Kakde proposed vote of thanks.

Villagers, students and teachers of Z.P. High School, Mrs. Anita Mote, Sarpanch, Deputy Sarpanch, Village Panchayat Members, Chairman and members of Mahatma Gandhi Litigation Free Village Schemes, Chairman and members of Sant Gadgebaba Village Cleanliness Mission, Adv. Bhaskar Nalawade, Secretary Khultabad Taluka Bar Association, Block Development Officer Shri. Harde were also present on this occasion.

We had displayed the posters having information of various laws. The students of M.P. Law College performed Street-plays on the topic of dowry prohibition and female foeticide and then we took out rally from the village, students performed street-play on problems of senior citizens.

Legal Aid Camp at Karmad

We organized 2nd Legal Aid camp on 18.12.2012 in New High School of Karmad, Tq. Aurangabad.

The programme was started by lighting the lamp and garlanding the portrait of Goddess Saraswati at the auspicious hands of guests. Then Miss. Trupti Suruse and Miss. Razia Quadri sang welcome song. Guests were felicitated.

The legal aid camp was inaugurated by Hon'ble Shri. Ashok Soni, Judge, Aurangabad Court. Shri. Soni in his inaugural speech emphasized that ignorance of law is hurdle in the way of development and he also appealed to people not to increase the disputes among them and settle it by amicably. Prof. Dinesh Kolte delivered introductory speech.

Shri. Sambhaji Pawar, Police Inspector, Karmad police station as a chief guest of the function delivered the speech on Motor Vehicles Act and explained the importance of driving licence.

Hon'ble Shri. S.M. Patel, President Aurangabad District Bar Association delivered presidential speech and in his speech, he highlighted importance of organizing legal aid camps.

Adv. Sunil Padul also spoke on this occasion about fundamental rights.

Mrs. Shinde Madam, Supervisor, Integrated Development Scheme, Panchayat Samiti, Aurangabad also delivered speech on rights of child.

Shri. Baban Kundre, Chairman, Health and Education Committee, Z.P. Aurangabad, Shri. Kailash Ukirde, Deputy Sarpanch, Karmad, Shri. Damu Anna Karmadkar, Chairman, Litigation Free Village Committee, Shri. Gaikwad, V.D.O. Karmad, Shri. Eknath Solanke, Chairman, Village Cooperative Credit Society, Shri. Baburao Muley, Ex-Sarpanch, Karmad, Shri. Bhimrao Patil, Chairman School Committee, Shri. Gatkal Sir, Head-Master were also present on this occasion.

The students of M.P. Law College performed street-play on dowry prohibition, female foeticide and problems on senior citizens. Mr. Sandip Munde anchored the program and Miss. Nikita Nage proposed the vote of thanks. _

Legal Aid Camp at Devgaon Rangari

The 3rd Legal Aid Camp was organized on 19.12.2012 at Shri. Ganesh Vidyalaya, Devgaon Rangari. The legal aid camp was organized with the help of Shri. Ganesh Vidyalaya, Devgaon Rangari. Devgaon Rangari is the village situated on highway of Aurangabad-Nashik.

The programme was started by lighting the lamp and garlanding the portraits of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, Savitribai Phule and Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar at the auspicious hands of guests.

Prof. Dinesh Kolte delivered introductory speech and stated the aims and objects of organizing legal aid camps in rural areas.

The camp was inaugurated by Shri. K.G. Paldewar, Judge, Kannad Court. Shri. Paldewar in his speech stated about importance of education for children and their duties and culture. He added in his speech that, if in this childhood, good values are cultivated, then students will become good citizens of India.

Shri. Vishwas Munde, Deputy Income-Tax Commissioner of Aurangabad, in his speech stated that everybody knows their rights, but if we performed our duties properly, there will be peace and harmony in the society. If everybody is aware of his responsibility, it will create a conscious society.

Shri. Ishu Sindhu, District Superintendent of Police, Chief Guest, in his speech appealed students that they should not utilize education for competition, but they should see how it would help for development of society. He added in his speech that along with merit, there should be cultivation of morality among the students for living in the society.

Adv. Ravindra Kulkarni, Senior Advocate from Kannad also spoke on this occasion.

Adv. Shri. Sanjivan Mene delivered presidential speech on behalf of the Adv. Ramdas Raut, who had presided over the function.

Dr. Prakashji Bhandwaldar, President, Shri. Karbhari Anna Bhandwaldar, Secretary, Shri. Narayanrao Kamble, Joint Secretary, Shri. Ganesh Shikshan Sanstha, Adv. Shri. M.C. Bharuka, Adv. Jagannath Magar, Adv. V.K. Chavan, Adv. J.M. Bendwal, Adv. Shri. B.D. Thorat and Adv. Shri. N.M. Shaikh, Shri. Nagre Sir, Head-Master of Shri. Ganesh Vidyalaya were also present on this occasion.

The students of M.P. Law College performed street-plays on Dowry Prohibition and Female Foeticide and problems of senior citizens. Miss. Pratiksha Kakde anchored the program and Miss. Bhakti Malpani proposed vote of thanks.

Legal Aid Camp at Ganori

The 4th Legal Aid Camp was organized on 20.12.2012 at Ganori, Tq. Phulambri. The program was started by lighting the lamps and garlanding the portrait of Savitribai Phule at the auspicious hands of guests.

The camp was organized in the auditorium hall of Maroti Temple of Ganori. Miss. Trupti Suruse and Razia Quadri sang welcome song. Guests were felicitated.

The camp was inaugurated by Shri. M.G. Malidwale, Judge, Phulambri Court. In his inaugural speech he stated to villagers to settle their disputes through Mediation which saves time and money.

Shri. Sandip Jadhav, Deputy Superintendent of Police explained the importance of study in school life. At the same time, in the school education, there should be inclusion of Law in their syllabus. He stated about losses arising out of ignorance of law and he highlighted the importance of knowledge of Law.

Adv. Bhimrao Pawar in his speech, stated that legal knowledge should reach at the door step of the people. It must be known to people who are related with legal field.

Adv. Ashok Thakare delivered speech on Consumer Protection Act and explained the various provisions of it to the villagers.

Mrs. Arundhati Chavan, Member of Zilla Parishad, Aurangabad also spoke on this occasion and emphasized on the problems of women in her speech.

Shri. Revnath Labde, Tahsildar, Phulambri, spoke on the right of way in the farm and how he freed the right of way in the field of farmers.

Adv. Shri. Taru, President of Phulambri Bar Association delivered presidential speech.

Shri. Kailash Peharkar, Sarpanch, Shri Raosaheb Patil Tandale, Deputy Sarpanch, Shri Jagannath Patil Tandale, Chairman, Litigation Free Village Scheme, Shri Bhausaheb Patil Tandale, Police Patil, Shri. Salunke Sir, Head-Master, Z.P. High School, Ganori and Shri. Adv. Devidas Jadhav were also present on this occasion.

Prof. Dinesh Kolte delivered introductory speech and Miss. Nayan Joshi anchored and program and Miss. Poonam Bodkhe Patil proposed vote of thanks.

The students of M.P. Law College performed street-plays on Dowry Prohibition and Female Foeticide and problems of senior citizens.

Then our students took out rally from the village and also performed street-plays in Z.P. High School, Ganori.

Legal Aid Camp at Gadhe Jalgaon

The 5th Legal Aid Camp was organized on 22.12.2012 in Z.P. School at village Gadhe Jalgaon, Tq. Aurangabad with the help of Shri. Shankar Thombre, Sarpanch of Gadhe Jalgaon.

The camp was started by lighting the lamps and garlanding portrait of Savitribai Phule at the auspicious hands of guests.

The camp was inaugurated by Shri. D.R. Pathan, Judge, Aurangabad Court. In his inaugural speech, he propounded that knowledge of Law not only be limited to the elder people, but also extended to students. He also appealed the people to solve their respective disputes through Mediation Centers. It benefits both the parties. He added in his speech that if the disputes are solved outside the Court, then there will be no pendency of cases in the Court.

Shri. Santosh Taware, Vice-President, Research and Development, Green-Gold Seeds, delivered speech on the Seeds Act and Agricultural Laws.

Mrs. Sneha Dev Madam, Block Development Officer, Panchayat Samiti, Aurangabad in her speech, emphasized on awareness of rights of women and their laws. She added in her speech about Women Protection and P.C.P.N.D.T. Act.

Adv. Sunil Padul in his speech, stated about importance of organizing legal aid camps.

Shri. Sudhir Pedgaonkar, Sub-Editor, Lokmat Times, Aurangabad stated about proper implementation of Laws. He added in his speech that we must not only follow written laws, but also unwritten laws.

Shri. Shankar Thombre, Sarpanch, Gadhe Jalgaon expressed his views about organization of Legal Aid Camp in his village.

Adv. Shri. Shivaji Navale, Assistant Government Pleader presided over the function, who in his presidential speech stated that nowadays there is increase of tendency of people towards commission of crime. The Lawyer is server of law and not a coercer.

Prof. Dinesh Kolte delivered introductory speech. Mr. Pradeep Chandane anchored and Miss. Pradnya Khillare proposed vote of thanks. The students of M.P. Law College performed street-plays on Dowry Prohibition and Female Foeticide. Mrs. Gayatri Thombre, Member, Panchayat Samiti, Aurangabad, Smt. Kausar Baig Mirza, Deputy Sarpanch, Shri. Nisar Baig Mirza, Chairman of Litigation Free Village Committee, Shri Balasaheb Thombre, Shri Suhas Patil Antaray, Shri Raosaheb Gadekar, Mrs. Meena Nighute, Member of Village Panchayat were also present on this occasion.

Legal Aid Camp at Satara

The 6th Legal Aid Camp was organized on 28.12.2012 at Chate School of Satara Tq. Aurangabad with the help of Chate School, Satara.

The said legal aid camp was inaugurated by Shri D. R. Pathan, Judge, Aurangabad. Prof. Dinesh Kolte introduced the camp.

Shri D. R. Pathan delivered inaugural speech and talked about rights of children, free and compulsory education for children and child labour prohibition and juvenile justice care and protection.

Adv. Shri Rajendra Godbole stated in his speech if the good virtues cultivated in child during their childhood then these children will become law abiding citizens. Adv. Godbole stated in his speech five laws for the students in the student's life.

Adv. Shri W.K. Shewale, Principal District Government Pleader delivered speech on duties of citizens and its importance in observing in man's life.

Shri Somnathji Gharge, Deputy Police Commissioner, Aurangabad also delivered speech on Child Education and Value Education. Shri Gavali Saheb, Member, State Consumer Commission, Bench at Aurangabad delivered speech on Consumer Protection Act, 1986 and he also explained various provisions of this Act.

Shri Gopichandji Chate delivered presidential speech on this occasion. Adv. Shri Pawar, Assistant Government Pleader, Mrs. Shirsat Sarpancha, Satara, Principals, Teachers and students of Chate Schools and villagers were present on this occasion.

Then, our students performed street plays on Female Feticide, Dowry Prohibition and Liquor Prohibition.

Legal Aid Camp at Chittepimpalgaon

The 7th Legal Aid Camp was organized on 02.01.2013 at Swami Vivekanand Vidyalaya of Chittepimpalgaon Tq. Aurangabad with the help of Gram Panachayat Chittegaon, Pimpalgaon, Apatgaon and Gharkheda.

The legal aid camp was inaugurated by Shri R. B. Deshpande, Judge, Aurangabad. Prof. Dinesh Kolte delivered introductory speech.

Shri Deshpande Saheb in his inaugural speech appealed the people to solve their dispute amicably in villages itself without knocking the doors of the court. Shri Anil Kumar Baste, Assistant Regional Transport Officer delivered speech on Road Safety and Value of Human Life.

Shri Vijay Raut, Tahsildar, Aurangabad delivered the speech on Women Succession and Record of Rights.

Mrs. Pallavi Barge, Deputy Superintendent of Police delivered speech on Prohibition of Women Atrocities and Protection of Women.

Hon'ble Shri Haribhau Bagade, Ex- Minister, Maharashtra State delivered speech on Litigation Free Village and Importance of Saving Water.

Shri Santosh Gavande, Sarpanch Chittegaon proposed vote of thanks and Pradeep Chandane anchored the programme.

Adv. Mrs. Dr. Kalpalata Bharaswadkar - Patil, Joint Secretary, M. L. & G. E. Society, Aurangabad delivered presidential address and highlighted the problems of Women in the society.

Shri D. R. Wagh, Divisional Commissioner Scout Guide, Aurangabad, Shri Ashok Pawar, Ex-Vice President of Zillha Parishad Aurangabad, Shri Dammuanna Navpute, Vice President Raje Sambhaji Sakhar Udyog, Mrs. Madhuri Banait, Counsel of RTO, Shri Raghunath Waghmode, Member Panacyat Samiti, Aurangabad, Shri Baliram Gavande, Member Panchayat Samiti , Aurangabad, Shri Rambhau Gavande, Ex- MLA, Aurangabad and Sarpanchas and Deputy Sarmanchs, Chairmans, Deputy Chairmans, Members of Litigation Free Village Scheme of Chitegaon Pimpalgaon, Apatgaon and Gharkheda were present on this occasion.

Then our students performed street plays on Female Feticide, Dowry Prohibition and Liquor Prohibition.

Legal Aid Camp at Vaijapur

The 8th Legal Aid Camp was organized on 05.01.2013 at Saint Monica English School of Vaijapur Tq. Vaijapur with the help of Adv. Maruti Jagtap.

The legal aid camp was inaugurated by Shri Sukhdeo Bankar, Chief Executive Officer, Zillha Parishad, Aurangabad. Prof. Dinesh Kolte introduced the camp.

Shri Bankar Saheb in his inaugural speech emphasized that people should change their mentality about Female Feticide.

Shri Bhausaheb Patil - Chikatgaonkar delivered speech on Law and Spirituality and he stated in his speech if there is a good virtues imbibed on the children by the school definitely they will become the good citizens.

Shri Prashant Shirke, BDO, Vaijapur delivered speech on Sex Ratio in Vaijapur Taluka.

Mrs. Shilpatai Pardeshi, Chairman, Vaijapur Municipality spoke on Present Scenario on Atrocities on the Women and she emphasized that there is need of good education in society and women should know their rights and they should be alert about atrocities on them.

Shri Madhukar Kirwale spoke on the importance of Punctuality while living life.

Shri Rameshji Ghorale, Deputy Superintendent of Police Viajapur spoke on Women's problem in the society and role of police.

Shri Mukeshji Bhoge, Sub. Divisional Revenue Officer, Vaijapur spoke on Maharashtra Land Revenue Code.

Shri Kiran Deshpande, Deputy Income Tax Commissioner, Aurangabad spoke on various provisions of Income Tax Act and Importance of paying income tax to the Government.

Adv. Maruti Jagtap expressed his views on organizing Legal Aid Camp at Vaijapur and appealed to the people that everybody should keep the Constitution in their home.

Mrs. Sameena Sayyed, Judge, Vaijapur Court, Vaijapur, delivered speech and she stated in her speech if girls are educated the whole family becomes literate and girls should do their self defense and fight against atrocities on them.

Adv. Rajendra Deshmukh, Governing Council Member, M.L&GE Society, Aurangabad delivered presidential speech and he emphasized that to people should study constitution to make themselves aware of their rights and duties. He also stated that the person who tolerates injustice he is more liable than the perpetrators. Therefore he appealed that we should be sensitized about the problems of weaker section and we should raise the voice against injustice.

Mrs. Vijayatai Patil - Chikatgaonkar, Vice President, Zillha Parishad, Aurangabad,

Adv. Shri Bagul, President, BAR Association, Vaijapur, Shri Adv. Pawar , Ex Vice President, BAR Association, Vaijapur, Shri Mahesh Patil, Child Development Officer, Vaijapur, Shri Dhondiramsingh Rajput, President, Journalist Association, Vaijapur, Shri N. S. Sayyed, Head Master New High School, Vaijapur, Shri S. K. Kotakar, Principal J. K. Jadhav Mahavidyalaya, Vaijapur, Shri S. Qazi Sir Head Master, H.D. Urdu School, Vaijapur, Ms. Sister Meena Rodrix, Principal, Karuna Niketan School, Teachers and Students of above schools and colleges were present on this occasions.

Our students performed street plays on Female Feticide, Dowry Prohibition and Liquor Prohibition.

The Students of Saint Monica English School, Vaijapur drawn the Rangoli on Female Foeticide.

LEGAL AID CAMP AT GAJGAON

M.P. Law College organized 9th Legal Aid Camp at Gajgaon is a small village in the Gangapur Taluka, District Aurangabad.

The camp was arranged with the assistance of the one of our LL.B.II student Balu Mhaske on 07th Jan.2013 at Ganesh High School, Gajgaon. People from nearby places and students of the 8th to 10th slandered and junior college were present during the camp. The theme of the camp was 'Child Right'

The camp was inaugurated at the auspicious hands of Shri. A.V. Bahir Principal Judge, Gangapur Court. For the inaugural session Shri Kaduba Hiwale Sarpach Gajgaon, Head master of the school Shree, Shri Uttam Kalawane, Santosh Kalawane members of the management of Ganesh High school President of agriculture Market committee were the chief guests.

All the dignitaries were felicitated with bouquet Dr. Aparna N. Kottapalle, Asst. Professor of Law and co-ordinator for the legal aid camp while introducing the event mentioned the various activities of legal aid conducted by M.P. Law College and expressed deep gratitude towards the financial help provided by the NALSA and guidance given by the Dist. Legal Services Authority.

Shri. A.V. Bahir, Judge Gangapur, who is alumni of M.P. Law College, congratulated college for conducting such activities for the social cause, and explained the gathering the importance of Law in his inaugural speech. Sir, talked about rights and duties and emphasised on others rights and thoughts as well. He mentioned 'there would be no need of govt. instrumentalities for protecting the social interest, if everybody takes care of not violating others rights '

After the inaugural speech Prof. Shri S.N. Morey Asst.Prof of Law, M.P. Law College enlightened the gathering on the constitution of India in a very lucid manner. He explained the gathering the meaning and importance of Justice liberty, equality and fraternity. Sir expressed 'Fraternity works as cement in the society that ties everybody together which is very necessary for the unity and integrity of the nation.' Sir also provided the linkages of Child right in the constitution.

After his speech Street play on Declining sex ratio (Lek wachawa Jag wachwa) was performed by LL.B. II Year students. Approximately 12 students

Students of LL.M spoke and introduced various laws as follows -
Adv. Mamta Zalte - Child Labour

Adv. Vrushali - Right to education

Adv. Mrs. Morey - Child's right to maintenance

Adv. Supriya Deshpande - Child marriages

Thereafter second street play on 'Anti superstition (Andhashraddha Nirmulan)' was performed by the LL.B II Students. 8 students participated in this street play.

During this camp Posters on various laws were exhibited for observation. College Students were there to explain the contents on the posters to those who were illiterate. LL.M. Students also devoted time for the counselling after the deliberations. Mainly the counselling was on mid day mill, corporal punishments and study pressure and work at home .

Students performing street-plays

During the camp, informative pamphlets on fundamental rights and duties, Anti ragging laws, consumer laws, PC & PNDT, Right to information, Domestic violence, Free legal aid provisions were distributed amongst participants and to the people at various places and students were requested to hand it over to their parents.

Both the street plays and the informative speeches were appreciated by the audience, people and the dignitaries at Gajgaon. Street plays were also performed in front of Panchayat Samitee office. Over all response to the camp was good and to the satisfaction of the Institution.

LEGAL AID CAMP AT AAGARWADGAON

M.P. Law College organized 10th Legal Aid Camp at Aagarwadgaon is a small village in the Gangapur Taluka, District Aurangabad. The camp was arranged with the assistance of the parents of one of our LL.B.II student Samiksha Auti on 08th Jan.2013 at the ground of Z.P. School in front of office of Sarpanch, Aagarwadgaon. People from Aagarwadgaon, Gallimb, Bhiv dhanora were present during the camp.

The camp was inaugurated at the auspicious hands of Shri. Shaikh Imran Shaikh Razzaq Judge, Gangapur Court. For the inaugural session Shri Aanna Saheb Sukhadhan Sarpach Aagarwadgaon, Adv. Shri Mande and Adv. Smt. Madhuri Advant who are panel members of the M.P. Law College legal aid clinic were present as guest of honour

All the dignitaries were felicitated with bouquet. Dr. Aparna N. Kottapalle, Asst. Professor of Law and co-ordinator for the legal aid camp while introducing the event mentioned the various activities of legal aid conducted by M.P. Law College and expressed deep gratitude towards the financial help provided by the NALSA and guidance given by the Dist. Legal Services Authority. Shri. Imran Razzaq Judge Gangapur, explained the gathering the importance of Law and use of law in proper manner in his inaugural speech. Sir, also talked about settling the disputes by lok adalats and mediations. He mentioned ' Lok Adalats have immense importance in settling the disputes speedily, amicably without leaving any hatred in the mind.'

After the inaugural speech Adv. Mande enlightened the gathering on the Land Laws in a very lucid manner. As people at Gangapur have many problems relating to land acquisition, he explained the gathering the procedures for the entries in 7/12 extracts problems of corrupt practices, land acquisition as well.

Adv. Madhuri Advant guided the villagers on maintenance laws. She explained provisions of personal laws, S. 125 Cr.P.C and senior citizens welfare and maintenance Act. Along with this she also explained the procedure to apply for the remedy

After their speech Street play on Declining sex ratio (Lek wachawa Jag wachwa) was performed by LL.B. II Year students. Approximately 12 students participated in this street play.

Students of LL.M spoke and introduced various laws as follows –

1. Adv. Devyani Wahane – Fundamental Rights and Duties
2. Adv.Naseem Kurane – Child Marriage Prohibition
3. Adv. Shaikh Sanobar – Right to education
4. Adv.Gajanan Thakare –PWDV Act
5. Adv. Pallavi Mhaske – Right to Information
6. Ms. Archana Wadekar – gender equality
7. Adv. Meera Patel – Atrocities on SC ST women

Thereafter second street play on 'Anti superstition (Andhashraddha Nirmulan)' was performed by the LL.B II Students. 8 students participated in this streetplay.

During this camp Posters on various laws were exhibited for observation. College Students were there to explain the contents on the posters to those who were illiterate. LL.M. Students also devoted time for the counseling after the deliberations. Mainly the counseling was on land and property disputes and family disputes.

During the camp, informative pamphlets on fundamental rights and duties, Anti ragging laws, consumer laws, PC & PNDT, Right to information, Domestic violence, Free legal aid provisions were distributed amongst participants and to the people at various places and students were requested to hand it over to their parents.

Both the street plays and the informative speeches were appreciated by the audience, people and the dignitaries Aagarwadgaon Gallimb and Bhivdhanora.

While coming back to Aurangabad Street plays were also performed at Bhendala a small village. The same were performed in the presence of Smt. Shashikalabai Parabhane the sarpanch, Shri Ashok Khaire President Dispute Resolving Committee at Bhendala. Students of B. ed. and D. Ed from the nearby college at Bhendala were invited to watch these street plays. In addition to the two above referred street plays one additional street play on Anti Ragging also was performed for the students who were present there. Over all response to the camp was good and to the satisfaction of the Institution.

Legal Aid Camp at Babra

The 11th Legal Aid Camp was organized on 12.01.2013 at Babra Tq. Phulmbri with the help of Shri Jitendra Jaiswal, Ex- Member, Zillha Parishad, Aurangabad.

The legal aid camp was inaugurated by Shri Kisanraoji Lavande Saheb, Collector, Aurangabad. Prof. Dinesh Kolte delivered introductory speech.

Hon'ble Shri Lavande Saheb, propounded in his speech that moral law is the paramount law and parents, society teach us moral things i.e.

Constitution has adopted liberty, equality, fraternity and justice for the welfare of the people and the saints have given us message worked for welfare of the society.

Adv. Shri Bhimrao Pawar, Assistant District Government Pleader, also stated in his speech that all the officers of the district are coming at the door of the people because there is a change in the administration and this happened because of independence.

Mrs. Pallavi Barge, Deputy Superintendent of Police, Aurangabad also stated in her speech that there is need to change the mentality of the society then there will be curb of female feticide. She also appealed to the masses that they should not keep mum against the atrocities on the women.

Shri Vishwas Mundhe, Deputy Commissioner of Income Tax, Aurangabad who in his speech stated that because of Panchayat Raj System there is development in the village and he also appeal to the youth they should come forward through pancyat raj for the development of their village.

Mrs. Adv. N. P. Hardas Madam, stated that we require sister, wife, mother but not daughter. Therefore there is need to change the mentality of the society. She also stated in her speech because of the amendment in the Succession Act every women get equal shares in her father's property as like her brothers.

Hon'ble Shri S. B. Korhale, Secretary, District Legal Services Authority, Aurangabad he stated the importance of organizing legal aid camps and lok adalat also. He also stated the need of organizing lok adalat because it saves the time money and relations of the clients by solving their disputes through lok adalat. If the people solve their disputes amicably it is the advantage of each and every person, society as well as the nation also. He also appealed the people to solve their pending disputes through lok adalat and save their time and money also.

Shri Jitendra Jaiswal in his speech stated that there is need to organize such camp because nowadays youth have changed their path. Hence to bring them on right path and the youth should remember their parent's hard work they should go on the path of Swami Vivekanand and Rajmata Jijau.

Hon'ble Shri Umakant Patil, Governing Council Member, M.L.&G.E. Society, Aurangabad who presided over the function, in his presidential address stated that when there is less disputes there will be development of the society. He also stated that the happiness which the parties get through settlement of their disputes through amicable ways, they do not get it the court. In the amicable settlement there is a win-win situation of both the parties. Hence he appealed to the villagers to solve their disputes through mediations.

Mrs. Madhuritai Gadekar, Chairman of Panchayat Samiti, Shri Subhashrao Gaikwad, Vice Chairman, Agriculture Market Producing Committee, Phulmbri, Shri Suhasbahu Shirsat, Sarpancha Phulmbri, Shri Kale Saheb, Engineer, Irrigation Department, Shri Ramkrushna Patil Maid, Shri Chavhan, Litigation Free Village Committee, Bara, Shri Karbhari Pawar, Sarpanch Babra, Shri Khushalrao Pawar, Chairman, Credit Society Babra, Mrs. Sunanda Wagh, Deputy Sarpancha, Babra were present on this occasion. Our students performed street plays on Female Feticide, Dowry Prohibition.

Students performing the street plays on Dowry Prohibition

LEGAL AID CAMP AT LASURGAON

M.P. Law College organized 12th Legal Aid Camp at Lasurgaon is a small village in the Vaijapur Taluka, District Aurangabad. The camp was arranged with the assistance of the parents of one of our LL.B.II student Ms. Priyanka Kataria on 21st Jan.2013 at the Hall of Goddess Dakshayani Temple. People from Lasurgaon, and Lasur Station were present during the camp. The camp was inaugurated at the auspicious hands of Shri. Nathani Judge, Gangapur Court. For the inaugural session Shri Mahadev Kirawale, Tahesildar Vaijapur, Shri Ranjeet Deshmukh Sarpach Lasurgaon, Shri Kalyanchand Munot, president Devi Dakshayani Temple, Lasurgaon were present as guest of honour

All the dignitaries were felicitated with bouquet. Dr. Aparna N. Kottapalle, Asst. Professor of Law and co-ordinator for the legal aid camp. While introducing the event mentioned the various activities of legal aid conducted by M.P. Law College and expressed deep gratitude towards the financial help provided by the NALSA and guidance given by the Dist. Legal Services Authority.

Shri. Nathani Judge Vaijapur, explained the gathering the importance of Law in his inaugural speech. Sir, also talked about settling the disputes by lok adalats. He expressed that 'people in India have great faith in judiciary hence day by day number of cases are increasing before the judiciary which is also one of the contributing factor for the heavy pendency of disputes before the courts. In this situation Lok Adalats are helpful to provide the solution to the disputes amicably'

After the inaugural speech Shri. Mahadev Kirawale Tahesildar Vaijapur enlightened the gathering on linkages of various problems prevalent in India such as environmental issues, poverty, unemployment etc. with the social psychology, greediness and self centered atmosphere. He expressed 'there are more than 25,000 laws in India. However, problems, grievances and disputes are increasing day by day. On earth necessary amenities are sufficient for the sustenance of everybody still many people are hungry and living without shelter. It is for the youth and vigilant people in each corner of the society to think on this issue seriously and to act for the sustainable development '' His speech could catch every mind sitting in the crowd.

After his speech Street play on Declining sex ratio (Lek wachawa Jag wachwa) was performed by LL.B. II Year students. Approximately 12 students participated in this street play.

Students performing street-plays

Students of LL.M spoke and introduced various laws as follows -

1. Adv. Pallavi Eratkar - Various government schemes
2. Adv. Pallavi Mhaske - Female Feticide
3. Adv. Tathagat Kamble - Bail Provisions Child Marriage Prohibition
4. Adv. Deepak Gawai - Right to education
5. Adv. Supriya Deshpande - Prohibition of Child Marriage

Thereafter second street play on 'Anti superstition (Andhashraddha Nirmulan)' was performed by the LL.B

II Students. 8 students participated in this street play.

During this camp Posters on various laws were exhibited for observation. College Students were there to explain the contents on the posters to those who were illiterate. LL.M. Students also devoted time for the counseling after the deliberations. Mainly the counseling was on land and property disputes and land acquisition.

Students performing street-plays

During the camp, informative pamphlets on fundamental rights and duties, Anti ragging laws, consumer laws, PC & PNDT, Right to information, Domestic violence, Free legal aid provisions were distributed amongst participants and to the people at various places and students were requested to hand it over to their parents.

Both the street plays and the informative speeches were appreciated by the audience, people and the dignitaries Lasurgaon, Galnimb and Bhivdhanora.

While coming back to Aurangabad Street plays were also performed at Bhendala a small village. The same were performed in the presence of Smt. Shashikalabai Parabhane the sarpanch, Shri Ashok Khaire President Dispute Resolving Committee at Bhendala. Students of B. ed. and D. Ed from the nearby college at Bhendala were invited to watch these street plays. In addition to the two above referred street plays one additional street play on Anti Ragging also was performed for the students who were present there. Over all response to the camp was good and to the satisfaction of the Institution.

Legal Aid Camp at College

The Legal Aid Camp was organized on 30.07.2012 at Hall No. 12 of our College in collaboration with Police Commissionerate Aurangabad and District Legal Services Authority, Aurangabad.

This camp was inaugurated by Shri S. B. Korhale , Secretary, District Legal Services Authority, Aurangabad by lighting the lamp.

Prof. Dinesh Kolte delivered introductory speech on organizing legal aid camp.

Prof. Shrikishan Morey, Coordinator of Anti Ragging Mission of our College delivered the speech on Maharashtra Prevention of Anti Ragging Act and also narrated the role of our college in prevention of Ragging.

Prof. B. V. Pranjpe Madam, delivered the speech on right to education and highlighted various rulings of Apex Court and Constitutional Amendments.

Shri Dnyaneswar Sable, Police Inspector, Anti Corruption Bureau, Aurangabad delivered the speech on Prevention of Corruption Act and explained its various provisions and appealed the students not to give bribe and inform the Anti Corruption Bureau against the culprits.

Shri Somanath Gharge, Deputy Police Commissioner, Aurangabad delivered the speech on Cyber Laws and he narrated the experiences about cyber crimes and explained various provisions of information technology Act and appealed the students that they should be wary about the cyber laws

Shri S. B. Korhale delivered the speech on organizing such legal aid camps in colleges and also explained the various provisions of Legal Services Authority Act.

Principal Dr. C. M. Rao presided over the function and delivered presidential address. Dr. Aparna Kottapalle proposed the vote of thanks and Mr. Pradeep Dahiwal anchored the programme. The students of LL.B. II performed street plays on Anti Ragging Act.

Legal Aid Camp at College

The Legal Aid Camp was organized on 16.02.2013 at Hall No. 12 of our College in collaboration with High Court Legal Services Sub Committee, Aurangabad.

This camp was inaugurated by the guest by lighting the lamp. Prof. Dinesh Kolte delivered introductory speech on organizing legal aid camp.

Adv. R. M. Deshmukh delivered the speech on Rights of Children and related Acts and explained the various provisions of law relating to children.

Adv. S. D. Hivrekar stated various Government beneficial schemes for public at large.

Adv. Shri A. P. Basarkar spoke on Protection of Rights of Senior Citizens and he explained the reason of enactment of Senior Citizens Act and explained various provisions of Senior Citizens Act.

Shri Vijay S. Kulkarni, Secretary & Registrar, High Court Legal Services, Sub-committee, Aurangabad was the chief guest of this programme who delivered speech on importance of organizing such legal aid camps in law college. He stated that if the students of law college has knowledge of above said laws definitely they will inform people through college legal aid activities and camps.

Prof. B. V. Paranjpe Madam, Principal Incharge of College delivered presidential speech and she stated in her speech about the activities of the college in legal aid field. Prof. Shashikant Shirsat proposed vote of thanks and Mr. Pradeep Dahiwal anchored the programme.