

LEGAL AID CAMP AT BHARADI

Our College organized 1st Legal aid camp at Bharadi, Tq. Sillod on 20/12/2013. The camp was organized in the premises of S. B. School, Bharadi. The programme was started by lighting the lamp and garlanding the portrait of Goddess Saraswati at the auspicious hands of guests.

The Legal aid camp was inaugurated by Hon'ble Shri S. S. Deshmukh Saheb, Judge, Sillod Court. Prof. Dinesh Kolte, Co-ordinator of Legal Aid Camp delivered introductory speech and explained the aims and objects organizing Legal Aid Camp. Shri S. S. Deshmukh in his inaugural speech said that disputes should be resolved amicably.

Adv. Vishakha Pathade delivered speech on 'Women Rights and Laws', and she appealed in her speech that girls should come forward to lodge complaint on their atrocities.

Adv. Ravindra Thate also delivered speech on "Child Rights". Adv. Santosh Zalte in his speech explained the rights of Students and their role in school life.

Adv. G. S. Arke delivered speech on 'Women Laws' and explained latest development in women laws. Adv. G. P. Magar delivered the speech on 'Environmental Laws' and told importance of protection of environment and afforestation.

Hon'ble Shri Ram Mandurke, Deputy Superintendent of Police appealed youth in his speech about dedication and their role in the protection of country.

Hon'ble Shri S. K. Khan Saheb, Judge, Sillod Court, also delivered speech and explained the court procedures and importance of Loknayaalaya in his speech.

Adv. Ashok Tayade, President Sillod Taluka Bar Association delivered presidential speech and he appealed audience don't file false complaint in the Court.

Adv. S. G. Borade, Adv. Shantram Kakde, Shri S. Y. Salve, Headmaster of S. B. School, Mrs. Sangita Pandav, Sarpancha, Bharadi, Gram Panchayat, Shri Pandurang Khomne Patil, Chairman Local Management Committee present on this occasion.

Students of M. P. Law College performed street plays on Child Rights and female feticide. Ms. Priya Chonde proposed vote of thanks and Ms. Neha Kamble anchored the programe.

LEGAL AID CAMP AT KANNAD

The 2nd Legal Aid Camp was organized by our College on 24/12/2014 in Sane Guruji High School at Kannad. The legal aid camps was inaugurated by lighting lamps and garlanding portrait of Sane Guruji by the guests.

The camp was inaugurated by Shri A. A. Walunjkar, Judge Kannad Court. He in his inaugural speech he informed about various provisions of 'Child Labour' and appealed people to avoid child labour. Prof. Dinesh Kolte delivered introductory speech.

Shri Mahesh Sudalkar, Tahsildar, Kannad who was Chief guest of the programe, he stated in his speech he expounded the todays educational system and rights of education of children and he appealed people there is a need to impart education to children who deprive from education because of their poverty.

Adv. Ganesh Sing Bondwal delivered speech on 'Women Rights and appealed students not give dowry and not take dowry in marriage. Adv. N.

M. Sheikh also delivered speech on Importance of Rights to vote in election Adv. Sanjivan Mene also spoke on this occasion and appealed people to take advantage of Lok Adalats arranged by Legal Service authority to reduce their grievances.

Adv. V. K. Chavhan delivered presidential speech. In his presidential address he started that to fortify democracy every common man must have knowledge of law. Shri T. S. Kadam Sir expressed his views about organizing legal camp in their school.

Dr. Milind Patil Sir, President, Sane Guruji Shikshan Prasarak Mandal, Kannad Mrs. Sanap Madam, Block Development Officer, Kannad, were present on this occasion.

The students of M. P. Law College performed street plays on the subject of 'Women atrocities, and Child Labour. Ms. Neha Kamble anchored programe and Ms. Rajju Gudade proposed vote of thanks.

LEGAL AID CAMP AT BHENDALA

M.P. Law College organized 3rdLegal Aid Camp at Bhendala a village in the Gangapur Taluka, District Aurangabad.

The camp was arranged with the assistance of Smt. Samiksha Auti, student of III year of LL.B. course on 27thDecember 2013 at the premises of Zilla Parishad School Bhendala. People from Bhendala as well as nearby places and B.ed.studentswere present during the camp.

The camp was inaugurated at the auspicious hands of Shri. A. V. Bahir Principal Judge, Gangapur Court.Chairperson of the function was Smt. Chandrakalabai Parabhane, Sarpanch Bhendala, Gangapur. For the inaugural session In this camp Prof. Abhay Jadhav was present to guide the audience .

All the dignitaries were felicitated with bouquet. Dr. Aparna N. Kottapalle, Asst. Professor of Law and co-ordinator for the legal aid camp while introducing the event mentioned the various activities of legal aid conducted by M.P. Law College and expressed deep sense of gratitude towards the financial help provided by the NALSA and guidance given by the Dist. Legal Services Authority.

Shri. A. V. Bahir Principal Judge, Gangapur Court inaugurated the camp and expressed proud feeling being alumni of M.P. Law College, Aurangabad and explained the gathering provisions pertaining to the consumer redressal. After his speech three street plays on the following subjects were performed by NLC IV year students

01. Ill Effect of liquor consumption

02. Consumer protection

03. Dowry Prohibition

After the street plays Prof. Abhay Jadhav delivered speech as a resource person on the topic Dowry prohibition. People gathered there enjoyed and appreciated the street plays as well as speech also. During this camp posters on various laws were exhibited for observation. College Students were there to explain the contents on the posters to those who were illiterate. The programme was anchored by Ms. Mrunal Kolhe and Dipesh Kottawar.

During the camp, informative pamphlets on fundamental rights and duties, Anti ragging laws, consumer laws, PC & PNDT, Right to information, Domestic violence, Free legal aid provisions were distributed amongst participants and to the people at various places and students were requested to hand it over to their parents.

All the street plays and the informative speeches were appreciated by the audience, people and the dignitaries at Bhendala. Street plays were also performed in front of Panchayat Samitee office. Over all response to the camp was good and to the satisfaction of the Institution.

LEGAL AID CAMP AT BAHIRGAON

M.P. Law College organized 4th Legal Aid Camp at Bahirgaon, a village in the Kannad Taluka, District Aurangabad.

The camp was arranged with the assistance of the one of our Colleague faculty Prof. Pratibha Girbane on 29th December, 2013 at Village panchayat Bahirgaon. This village has won the prize of Tanta Mukti and Sant Gadge baba Nirmal Gram Puraskar. People from nearby places and students of the 8th to 10th standard and junior college were present during the camp.

The camp was inaugurated at the auspicious hands of Shri. A.A. Walunjakar Judge, Kannad Court. The function was presided over by Hon'ble Shri. S.B. Korhale, Secretary, Dist. Legal Services Authority, Aurangabad. For the camp Smt. Morey Sarpanch Bahirgaon, Shri Kishore Patil, former MLA, Shri. Subhash Patil social worker, and President Tanta Mukti Committee were present. All the dignitaries were felicitated with bouquet. Dr. Aparna N. Kottapalle, Asst. Professor of Law and co-ordinator for the legal aid camp while introducing the event mentioned the various activities of legal aid conducted by M.P. Law College and expressed deep sense of gratitude towards the financial help provided by the NALSA and guidance given by the Dist. Legal Services Authority.

Shri. A. A. Walunjakar, Judge Kannad, inaugurated the camp and guided the audience about protection of women from domestic violence Act 2005 and related laws.

Advocate Shri. Bhimrao Pawar, Asst. P.P. guided villagers on cooperative participation of the villagers for the development of village and law. Advocate Malani covered the consumer rights and Land law provisions about 7/12 extracts. He appealed to villagers not to file cases before attempting to settle the dispute by amicable ways.

Advocate Ashok Thakre in his speech guided the villagers on rights of accused person and victims of crime, FIR, and criminal law provisions for women. He also expressed great concern for the delay in disposing of the cases and mentioned the need of more appointments of judges.

After his speech Four Street plays on the following subjects were performed by the NLC IV and LL.B II year students -

1. StreeaaniSurakshitata (Protection of Women)
2. Consumer Rights
3. Right to vote
4. Problems of Senior Citizens.

There was overwhelming response from the villagers for the street plays performed by the students. The speeches were also much appreciated.

During this camp Posters on various laws were exhibited for observation. College Students were there to explain the contents on the posters to those who were illiterate.

Students also devoted time for the counselling after the deliberations. The programme was anchored by Ms. Neha Kamble.

LEGAL AID CAMP AT BORGAON

M.P. Law College organized 5th Legal Aid Camp at Borgaon, a village in the Fulambri Taluka, District Aurangabad. The camp was arranged with the assistance of our students Mr. Digambar Sathe and Mr. Vishnu Tayade from NLC IV year and LL.B. II year respectively on 30th December, 2013 at Yashwant School, Borgaon. People from nearby places and students of the 8th to 10th standard and junior college were present during the camp.

The camp was inaugurated at the auspicious hands of Shri. D.M. Zate Judge, Fulambri Court. The function was presided over by Hon'ble Smt. Purnabai M. Balande Sarpanch Borgaon. For the camp Shri Mane Block Development Officer, Shri Machhindra Surawase, PSI, Vadoadbazar, Shri Sabale, Talathi, Borgaon, Shri. A.D. Pandhre, head master, Yashwant School, Borgaon, Shri. Namdev Kharat, President Tanta Mukti Committee and Adv. Aasaram Lahane , president were present.

All the dignitaries were felicitated with bouquet. Dr. Aparna N. Kottapalle, Asst. Professor of Law and co-ordinator for the legal aid camp while introducing the event mentioned the various activities of legal aid conducted by M.P. Law College and expressed deep sense of gratitude towards the financial help provided by the NALSA and guidance given by the Dist. Legal Services Authority.

Shri. D.M. Zate Judge, Fulambri Court, inaugurated the camp and guided the audience about ADRS mechanism and importance of Lokadalat.

Advocate Shri. Gajanan Wyawahare, guided villagers on Juvenile delinquency and the law. Advocate Ganesh Kale covered the provisions of law on prohibition of Child labour .

Shri Sabale Talathi also guided the audience on liquor prohibition. After his speech Four Street plays on the following subjects were performed by the NLC IV and LL.B II year students

01. Streeaani Surakshitata (Protection of Women)

02. Consumer Rights
03. Right to vote
04. Problems of Senior Citizens.

There was overwhelming response from the villagers for the street plays performed by the students. The speeches were also much appreciated.

During this camp Posters on various laws were exhibited for observation. College Students were there to explain the contents on the posters to those who were illiterate. Students also devoted time for the counselling after the deliberations. The programme was anchored by Mr. Vishnu Tayde and Digambar Sathe.

During the camp, informative pamphlets on fundamental rights and duties, Anti ragging laws, consumer laws, PC & PNDT, Right to information, Domestic violence, Free legal aid provisions were distributed amongst participants and to the people at various places and students were requested to hand it over to their parents.

All the street plays and the informative speeches were appreciated by the audience, people and the dignitaries at Borgaon. Street plays were also performed in front of Panchayat Samitee office. Over all response to the camp was good and to the satisfaction of the Institution.

LEGAL AID CAMP AT KADETHAN

M.P. Law College organized 6th Legal Aid Camp at Kadethan, a village in the Paithan Taluka, District Aurangabad.

The camp was arranged with the assistance of the one of our NLC IV year student Mr.Sambhaji Tawar on 18th Jan.2014 at Mahalaxmi Temple, Kadethan. People from nearby places and students of the 8th to 10thslandered and junior college were present during the camp.

The camp was inaugurated at the auspicious hands of Shri. B.T. Yengde Judge, Paithan Court. For the inaugural session Shri Abhijeet Tawar, Sarpach Kadethan, Shri. Chikhalikar Asst. Police superintendent, Pachod, Shri. Patil, Head master of the school Mr. Anil Tawar President Tanta Mukti Committee, Mr. Bhaskarrao Zirpe social worker from the village, were the chief guests.

All the dignitaries were felicitated with bouquet. Dr. Aparna N. Kottapalle, Asst. Professor of Law and co-ordinator for the legal aid camp while introducing the event mentioned the various activities of legal aid conducted by M.P. Law College and expressed deep sense of gratitude towards the financial help provided by the NALSA and guidance given by the Dist. Legal Services Authority.

Shri. B.T. Yengde, Judge Paithan, inaugurated the camp and congratulated college for conducting such activities for the social cause, and explained the gathering the importance of Law in his inaugural speech. Sir, talked about ADRS mechanism and settlement of disputes through Lokadalat. After his speech Four Street plays on the following subjects were performed by the NLC IV and LL.B II year students -

01. Consumer Protection and consumer awareness
02. Right to education
03. Female foeticide
04. Anti-Superstition

There was overwhelming response from the villagers for the street plays performed by the students. Though the camp was arranged in the temple, the audience observed very patiently the street play on Andhashradhha Nirmulan i.e. Anti-Superstition. The same was much appreciated.

During this camp Posters on various laws were exhibited for observation. College Students were there to explain the contents on the posters to those who were illiterate. Students also devoted time for the counselling after the deliberations. The programme was anchored by Ms. Shalaka Khandekar.

During the camp, informative pamphlets on fundamental rights and duties, Anti ragging laws, consumer laws, PC & PNDT, Right to information, Domestic violence, Free legal aid provisions were distributed amongst participants and to the people at various places and students were requested to hand it over to their parents.

All the street plays and the informative speeches were appreciated by the audience, people and the dignitaries at Kadethan. Street plays were also performed in front of Panchayat Samitee office. Over all response to the camp was good and to the satisfaction of the Institution.

LEGAL AID CAMP AT SOYGAON

M.P. Law College organized 7th Legal Aid Camp at Soygaon a village in the Z. P. High School, Soyagaon, District Aurangabad.

The camp was inaugurated by lighting lamps and garlanding the portrait of Mahatma Gandhi by the guests. Prof. Dinesh Kolte delivered introductory speech.

Shri A. E. Sheikh Judge, Soyagaon Court delivered inaugural speech and he highlighted that we should make awareness among people about prohibition of child labour and he appealed people to avoid employing child, and to send them school not on job.

Shri Harishchandra Gavali, Tahsildar, Kannad delivered speech on revenue laws. Adv. Vishakha Pathade expressed her views about organizing legal aid camp at Soygaon. Shri Santosh Ghate police Inspector, Soyagaon Police Station delivered speech on role of Police in the administration of justice. Shri Ram Mandurke, Deputy Superintendent of Police spoke on this occasion on Child Rights and its protection.

Shri Bhagwanrao Deshmukh, ex Principal also spoke on this occasion on literature and law. Shri Adv. Maroti Jagtap also delivered speech. Adv. Amrut Nikumbh over the President, Soyagaon Taluka, Bar Association delivered presidential speech.

Dr. Shirish Pawar, Principal Sant Dnyaneshwar Mahavidyalaya, Soyagaon, Adv. Rajesh Giri, Adv. Ravikant Patil, Adv. Shantaram

LEGAL AID CAMP AT DHOREGAON

M.P. Law College organized 8th Legal Aid Camp at Dhoregaon, a village in the Gangapur Taluka, District Aurangabad.

The camp was arranged with the assistance of Smt. Kausalya Gade, social worker in the area of Gangapur on 25th Jan.2014 on the occasion of National Vote day at the ground of Kendriya Vidyalaya School Dhoregaon. People from Dhoregaon as well as nearby places were present during the camp.

The camp was inaugurated at the auspicious hands of Shri. A. V. Bahir Principal Judge, Gangapur Court. Chairperson of the function was Smt. Anita Kolgane, Tahesildar, Gangapur. For the inaugural session Smt. Kusumbai Borude, Sarpanch Dhoregaon, Shri. Nandedkar Police Inspector Gangapur, were the chief guests. In this camp Advocate Shri. Rajendra Mugadiya, Assistant public prosecutor and Adv. Ajit Gayakwad, member of the panel of legal aid Dist. Legal services, were present to guide the audience .

All the dignitaries were felicitated with bouquet. Dr. Aparna N. Kottapalle, Asst. Professor of Law and co-ordinator for the legal aid camp while introducing the event mentioned the various activities of legal aid conducted by M.P. Law College and expressed deep sense of gratitude towards the financial help provided by the NALSA and guidance given by the Dist. Legal Services Authority.

Shri. A. V. Bahir Principal Judge, Gangapur Court inaugurated the camp and explained the gathering the importance of settlement of disputes through Lokadalat. Sir also appealed to the public referring even pre litigation disputes to the mediation and LokAdalat.

After his speech, Shri Nandedkar P.I. Gangapur explained the audience importance of abiding the law, and while explaining provision regarding search and arrest he also expressed great concern about public peace and tranquillity.

After his speech Street play on Right to vote was performed by the students of NLC.IV year students. Advocate Ajit Gayakwad explained the importance of voting in the democratic country and appealed everybody to perform the duty of casting the vote honestly.

Adv. Rajendra Mugadiya Asst. PP, guided the audience on provisions of bail and bond. After his speech three Street plays on the following subjects were performed by the NLC IV and LL.B II year students –

01. Consumer Protection and consumer awareness
02. Dowry prohibition
03. Liquor Prohibition

People gathered there enjoyed and appreciated the street plays. During this camp posters on various laws were exhibited for Observation. College Students were there to explain the contents on the posters to those who were illiterate. The programme was anchored by Ms. Neha Kolekar.

LEGAL AID CAMP AT FULAMBRI

M.P. Law College organized 9th Legal Aid Camp at Fulambri, Taluka, District Aurangabad.

The camp was arranged on 31st January, 2014 at Sant Savtamali Gramin Mahavidyalaya Fulambri. Students of the College and 8th to 10th standard from school were also present during the camp.

The camp was inaugurated at the auspicious hands of Shri. D.M. Zate Judge, Fulambri Court. The function was presided over by Dr. Pandurang Kalyankar, in -charge Principal of the Savata Mali college, Fulambri .Dr. Smt. Nalgirkar and Dr. Rajashri Pawar, members of Vishaka Cell of the college were also present for the camp. Prof. B.V. Paranjape from M.P. Law College was present as resource person.

All the dignitaries were felicitated with bouquet. Dr. Aparna N. Kottapalle, Asst. Professor of Law and co-ordinator for the legal aid camp while introducing the event mentioned the various activities of legal aid conducted by M.P. Law College and expressed deep sense of gratitude towards the financial help provided by the NALSA and guidance given by the Dist. Legal Services Authority.

Shri. D.M. Zate Judge, Fulambri Court, inaugurated the camp and guided the audience about importance of such camps in increasing awareness level. He enlightened the audience about women's legal rights.

Prof. B.V. Paranjape from M.P. Law College delivered speech as resource person on the topic female foeticide. Madam not only explained the provisions of law but also elaborated facts and figures about female foeticides in India and Marathwada region; she expressed her great concern about declining sex ratio.

Dr. Aparna N. Kottapalle delivered lecture as resource person on the subject 'sexual harassment of women at working place and Vishaka guidelines' she also narrated the provisions of recent legislation of 2013.

The speeches were much appreciated. After the speeches question answer session continued in an interesting way. After her speech two Street plays were performed by the NLC IV and LL.B II year students. The place for the performance of street plays was the open ground of the college. Following were the subjects of the street plays -

01. Streeyanchi Surakshitata (Protection of Women)

02. Female foeticide

There was very good response from the students for the street plays performed by the students.

During this camp Posters on various laws were exhibited for observation. College Students were there to explain the contents on the posters to those who were illiterate. The programme was anchored by Vajinath Kale and General Secretary of the student's council of Sant Savta Mali Gramin Mahavidyalaya.

LEGAL AID CAMP AT BIDKIN

The 10th Legal Aid Camp was organized on 14/2/2014 in S. B. School, at Bidkin, Taluka, Paithan the camp was started by lighting the lamp and garlanding portrait of Savitribai Phule at the auspicious hands of guests.

The Camp was inaugurated by Shri B. N. Chikne, Judge Paithan Court. In his inaugural speech he highlighted the importance of observing the law and he added in his speech that everybody must have knowledge of law.

Prof. Dinesh Kolte Co-ordinator of Legal Aid Camp delivered introductory speech and stated the importance of organizing legal aid camp in rural areas.

Adv. Dilip Khandagale expressed his views about organizing Legal Aid Camp in his school. Adv. Nivare, President of Paithan Bar Association also delivered speech and he highlighted the importance of organizing legal aid camp.

Shri Chandrakant Alsatwar, Deputy Superintendent of Police also delivered speech and he propounded in his speech about laws relating to Children rights in society.

Adv. Rajendra Godbole in his speech appealed to students not to accept any dowry in marriage and to avoid casteism and corruption. Principal Dr. C. M. Rao delivered presidential speech and appealed audience to respect laws and to become good human being in society.

The students of S. B. School, Bhagwati Kanya Prashala, H. P. College, Bidkin were attended programme. Adv. Kulkarni, Shri Jadhav Sir, S. B. School Shri Pashabhai Sheikh, Shri Ashok Dharme, Shri Waman Sathe, Shri Manik Rathod, Shri Javed Khan Pathan, Shri Sattarbhai Sayyed, Shri Babasaheb Teke, Shri Harun Jillani, Shri Kailash Dharme, Shri Baban Tange were present on this occasion.

The students of M. P. Law College performed street -plays on right to vote, child labour, female foeticide.

Abhijit Vithore anchored and Anant Magar proposed vote of thanks.

LEGAL AID CAMP AT PROUDH MAHILA VIDYALAYA,
AURANGABAD

M.P. Law College organized 11th Legal Aid Camp at Proudh Mahila Vidyalaya Taluka, District Aurangabad.

The camp was arranged on 9th January, 2014 at Proudh Mahila Vidyalaya Taluka, District Aurangabad. Women Students of the school from 1st to 10th standard were present during the camp. These women getting education from the school basically are from very poor economic background, or on remand, divorced, discarded, widows and shelter less women.

The camp was inaugurated at the auspicious hands of Shri. S. B. Korhale, Secretary District Legal Services Authority, Aurangabad. The function was presided over by Smt. Khiste, Principal of the school. Adv. Chaya Gayakwad, Adv. Swapnil Tawashikar, Prof. S.N. Morey, Prof. S.G. Shirsath, Prof. Dinesh Kolte, Prof. Abhay Jadhav, Prof. Kritika Tembhurnikar from M.P. Law College were present as resource person.

All the dignitaries were felicitated with bouquet. Dr. Aparna N. Kottapalle, Asst. Professor of Law and co-ordinator for the legal aid camp while introducing the event mentioned the various activities of legal aid conducted by M.P. Law College and expressed deep sense of gratitude towards the financial help provided by the NALSA and guidance given by the Dist. Legal Services Authority.

Shri. S.B. Korhale, Secretary District Legal Services Authority, Aurangabad inaugurated the camp and guided the audience about women's property rights .

Adv. Chaya Gayakwad delivered speech on Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005. Adv. Smt. Gaikwad discussed the social attitude and the legal provisions.

After her speech Prof. Abhay Jadhav spoke on the topic Dowry prohibition. Prof. S. N. Morey delivered speech on women under Indian Constitution. He expressed in his speech the paradigm shift of status of women after Indian Constitution.

Adv. Swapnil Tawashikar in his speech relating to women in criminal procedure mentioned the rights of women against arrest search and seizure. Prof. S.G. Shirsath delivered speech as a resource person on Maternity Benefit Act and allied facilities.

Prof Dinesh Kolte delivered speech as a resource person on the recent amendments in the criminal law in the year 2013. Prof. KritikaTembhurnikar delivered speech as resource person on the topic various schemes for women.

Smt. Khiste, Principal of the school delivered the presidential address. The speeches were much appreciated. After the speeches question answer session continued in an interesting way.

During this camp Posters on various laws were exhibited for observation. College Students AnkitaMantri, PankajDeore were there to explain the contents on the posters to those who were illiterate. The programme was anchored by NehaKolekar .

LEGAL AID CAMP AT PATODA

M.P. Law College organized 12thLegal Aid Camp at Patoda, Gangapur Taluka, District Aurangabad.

The camp was arranged on 11th March 2014 near Village panchayat,Patoda, Gangapur District Aurangabad. It was a very pleasant surprise for us to visit this village. Patoda has been awarded with the Nirmal gram Puraskar. The roads inside the village are constructed with the cement and there is plant of distilled water, where by every family is supplied with the clean and purified water for the drinking purpose with very meagre amount. Those villagers who are paying government tax are provided with the facility of free grinding of food grains.

The camp was inaugurated at the auspicious hands of Shri. S.B.Korhale, Secretary District Legal Services Authority, Aurangabad. The function was presided over by Shri. Dattatray Shahane, Sarpanch, Adv. D.B. Pere, Bhaskarrao Pere, Adv. RamdasMatkar, Shri. LahuMuchak, Police Patil, Patoda were present for the camp. Adv. ChayaGayakwad, Prof. S.N. Morey, Prof. S.G. Shirsath, Prof. AbhayJadhav, Prof. KritikaTembhurnikar from M.P. Law College were present as resource person. All the dignitaries were felicitated with bouquet.

Dr.Aparna N. Kottapalle, Asst. Professor of Law and co-ordinator for the legal aid camp while introducing the event mentioned the various activities of legal aid conducted by M.P. Law College and expressed deep sense of gratitude towards the financial help provided by the NALSA and guidance given by the Dist. Legal Services Authority.

Shri. S.B. Korhale, Secretary District Legal Services Authority, Aurangabad inaugurated the camp and guided the audience about women's property rights .

Adv. ChayaGayakwad delivered speech on ADRS Mechanism .Adv. Smt. Gaikwad discussed the social attitude and the legal provisions.

After her speech Prof. Abhay Jadhav spoke on the topic Dowry prohibition. Prof. S. N. Morey delivered speech on Lokpal and Indian Constitution.

Prof. S.G. Shirsath delivered speech as a resource person on 7/12 Extracts of the land and allied land laws. Prof. KritikaTembhurnikar delivered speech as resource person on the topic various schemes for women. Shri Dattatray Shahane, Sarpanch of the village delivered the presidential address.

The speeches were much appreciated. After the speeches question answer session continued in an interesting way.

Informative Booklets about law published by State legal services authority and Xeroxed by M.P. Law College were distributed amongst the villagerduring the camp.

Few extra copies were given for the library of the village. During this camp Social awakening with the regional songs and small skits were performed by the college students Prasad Kadam and SandeepMundhe. The programme was anchored by PankajDeore .

During the camp, informative pamphlets on fundamental rights and duties, Anti ragging laws, consumer laws, PC & PNDT, Right to information, Domestic violence, Free legal aid provisions were distributed amongst participants and to the people at various places and students were requested to hand it over to their parents.

All the street plays and the informative speeches were appreciated by the audience, people and the dignitaries at Kadethan. Street plays were also performed in front of PanchayatSamitee office. Over all response to the camp was good and to the satisfaction of the Institution.

M. L. & G. E. Society's

ManikchandPahade Law College, Aurangabad

STATE LEVEL PARA LEGAL TRAINING WORKSHOP

M. P. Law College in collaboration with District Legal Services Authority, Aurangabad had organized One Day Para Legal Training Workshop for students of Social Work and law faculty on 24/2/2014 at

Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Hall, M.P. Law College, Aurangabad Prof. Dr. Aparna N. Kottapalle, Coordinator of the workshop introduced the workshop and explained the aims and objects of organizing Para-Legal Training Workshop.

The said workshop was inaugurated by Hon'ble Shri S.B. Kachre, Judge, Dist. Court, Aurangabad. Hon'ble Shri S.B. Kachre delivered inaugural speech and enlightened the participants on the development of Legal Aid movements in India.

The inaugural function was presided over by Hon'ble Adv. Shri R.D. Deshpande, President, M. L. & G. E. Society, Aurangabad. 25 members of Samajik Suraksha Sameeti, Police Commissioner office, Aurangabad, 143 students of Social Work and Law and 15 faculties from various law colleges and colleges of social work participated in the workshop.

After inaugural function, 1st session of the workshop was on Muslim Personal Law on marriage and maintenance, in which, Mr. L.A. Khan, Judge(4th Judge, Junior Div.)District Court, Aurangabad guided delivered speech. Prof. B.V. Paranjape acted as coordinator for the session. The resource person preferred question answer session.

Thereafter In session, Adv. Chhaya Gaikwad delivered speech on Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005 and Dowry prohibition and Prof. S. N. Morey acted as co-ordinator. He in a very innovative way introduced the subject to the participants with some video clippings. Adv. Smt. Gaikwad discussed the social attitude and the legal provisions.

The 2nd session was started at 11.30 am. There were four subjects placed in this session. Adv. Rahul Joshi elaborated the procedure in Family court; his speech was coordinated by Prof. Sanjay Shirsath. Adv. Joshi appealed to the audience prefer mediations in the family matters, and try hard as far as possible for settling the matrimonial disputes amicably.

Smt. Anjali Dhanorkar, Deputy Collector, delivered speech on “Prevention of Harassment of Working Women at Work Place”. Her speech was co-ordinated by Prof. Dr. Aparna Kottapalle. Immediately thereafter in the same session Prof S.G. Shirsath delivered speech as a resource person on Maternity Benefit Act allied facilities. His speech was coordinated Prof. Amol Chavan.

Prof Dinesh Kolte delivered speech as a resource person on Mental Health Act and also shared his experiences as former JMFC. His speech was coordinated by Prof Abhay Jadhav.

After the Lunch Break III Session started by 2.00 pm in which Adv. P.F. Patni delivered talk on 'Hindu personal Law on Marriage, Guardianship and adoption. This lecture was co-ordinated by Prof. Kritika Tembhornikar.

Then Dr. Swati Shiralkar delivered Power point presentation on "PCPNDT" and Medical Termination of Pregnancy Act. This session was very live, as after the session discussions continued for a while.

Then, Hon'ble Shri S. B. Korhale, Secretary, District Legal Services Authority, Aurangabad addressed the participants on 'Legal Services Authority Act, 1987 and ADR this speech was co-ordinated by Prof. Sachin Deshmukh. The valedictory function started at 4.45 pm in the special presence of Hon'ble Shri S.B. Korhale Secretary, Dist. Legal Service Authority.

Prof. Dr. Aparna N. Kottapalle acted as co ordinator of Para Legal Training Workshop. Prof. Dr. Aparna N. Kottapalle reported the proceedings of the workshop and read out report of Legal Aid Camps and activities of the college which were conducted in the academic year of 2013-14. Hon'ble Dr. C. M. Rao, Principal M. P. Law College guided the audience.

The valedictory function was presided over by Adv. Shri. Umakant Patil, Secretary, M. L. & G. E. Society, Aurangabad. Adv. Shri. Umakant Patil delivered the presidential address.

Prof. Dinesh Kolte proposed vote of thanks and thereafter the workshop ended with National Anthem.