

Avishkar - Research Club Report

Year 2017-18

During this academic year 150 students registered for the research club. During first semester they were given overall orientation about the research activities to be conducted which were inclusive of training on research methods , seminar on human rights perspectives and participation in Avishkar competition. Students were encouraged to participate in the research competition. Due to which 10 researchers had participated in the university level research (Avishkar) competition and worked on socio legally very relevant and contemporary themes . the competition was held at Dr. BAM Univeristy during 23rd to 25th Dec. 2017 .Following is the list of student participantss

From UG catagory

01. Aakansha Tiwari - Pre Law I
02. Prashasthi shrivastav Pre Law I
03. Saurabh Munot Pre Law I
04. Sanyukta Suryawanshi Pre Law I
05. Rucha Kulkarni Pre Law I
06. Lokesh Kansal Pre Law II

From PG Catagory

07. Anagha Pedgaonkar

From PPG category:

08. Kranti J. Bhovte
09. Asha Sherkhane

& From Junior teachers category

10. Prof. Pratibha Girbane

All the abstracts of the researchers are annexed with this report separately. Amongst these participants Aakanksha , Prashasthi, sanyukta, Anagha Kranti and Pratibha madam were selected for the presentation round as all had given Poaster presentation in the preliminary round . in the final round Ms. Anagha Pedgaonkar and Pratibha Girbane were selected for the state level Avishkar competition to represent Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, which was held on 14 th and 15th of Jan. 2018at Agricultural university, Rahuri. Both the presentations were appreciated by the judges as well as other contestants.

Ms. Anagha Pedgaonkar participated in the Anveshan National Research competition held at Gujarat in feb.2018 and represented Dr. BAM University Aurangabad.

Every year Research Club organises awareness and sensitisation programme on the Human rights day, this year also the research club of the college in collaboration with Dist. Bar association, Aurangabad had organised state level seminar on 'changing dimensions of Right to shelter' on 11th Dec.2018 the report of the same is given separately.

Every year Research club organises training programme on research methodology for the research club students. This year 'Research methods seven days programme' was organised during Jan and Feb. 2018. As the students in legal aid activities work on socio legal projects they also need to know the research techniques hence this year the training was organised jointly by the research club and The Legal Aid Centre of the college. 350 college students along with outside scholars had participated. Dr. Nikhil Atale, Dr. Atmaram Shelke, Dr. Sadhana Pande Dr. Aparna Kottapalle Dr. Aashish Linge, Dr. B.V. Paranjape, were the resource persons during this training programme. The areas covered during the workshop were preparing the synopsis, literature review, various methods of research, importance of the study of judicial pronouncements, footnote styles, theses writing etc. Report of the training programme in detail is submitted separately.

Another major achievement of Research club students is opportunity to work on the research project. This year the Director, Centre for transparency and accountability at National Law School, New Delhi had selected M.P. Law college to get assistance in their research project titled 'An empirical study to examine the impact of legal aid services provided by the legal aid counsels on the quality of legal aid system in India' sponsored by ICSSR. For the collection of primary data in Aurangabad and Jalna District, 10 student members of research club from LL.B II year and NLC IV yrs were selected. They were Ms. Meenakshi P Kangaonkar, Bhuvanesh P. Bawankar, Vaibhav D. Bankar, Ranjit G. Jadhav, Madhuri M. Gabhud, Shilpa A. Munde, Ganesh Khaire, Ramesh Rajput, Priyanka Doke and Jeevan Khandagale. They were appreciated with the certificates for their work.

Research Club students of Pre Law I were shown a Hindi Movie on 28th March 2018 "Do aankhe Barah Haath " with a theme Open prisons the same was open to all pre law students. The same was much appreciated by the students.

Thus this year research club was active in research activities and academic endeavours.