

Report of the research Club Activity 2013-2014

01. Members of the research club had worked as trained investigators for the collection of data for the research project on 'working of consumer forums and consumer awareness in Maharashtra' in the college, funded by IIPA New Delhi. This year the report was submitted to IIPA New Delhi.
02. Students prepared posters on the findings of the research project. They also prepared posters on Human rights & role of police in protecting human rights. The same was released at the auspicious hands of Shri. Sanjay Kumar, Commissioner of Police, Aurangabad on the occasion of International Human rights Day i.e. on 10th December 2014. On this day workshop on role of police in protecting human rights was organized in which Shri. Sanjay Kumar, Commissioner of Police, Aurangabad was the chief speaker.
03. One day training programme on 'Scope and ambit of legal research in contemporary society' was arranged for training the members of the research club on 08th February 2014. Total 125 students of the research club participated in the same.

Dr. Shilendra Deolankar, Director IAS Training institute, Amravati delivered key note address on the topic 'contemporary themes in social sciences'

Dr. Prashant Amrutkar, Dept. of Political Science, Dr. BAM University delivered the speech as a resource person 'Scientific research paper writing'

Shri. P.J. Hirode Asst. Prof. of Law, Dr Ambedkar College of Law, Aurangabad delivered speech on 'Doctrinaire and non doctrinaire research methods'

Students Neha Kamble and Vaibhav Kulkarni had presented the research presentation on 'Jalpal Bill' for which they had secured 1st position at NMU Jalgaon in Avishkar Competition . Prasad Jarare presented PPT on mummification of Modern India